

Comment Guidelines for MerckEngage

Thank you for your interest in MerckEngage. The MerckEngage site is a place for consumers to engage with our company and learn about health and wellness resources as well as tools to help manage conditions. Our goal is to provide useful tools and resources that can be used and shared through an open and respectful dialogue around specific topics that meet your needs. MerckEngage respects the rights of individuals. However, within our site, we reserve the right to remove comments that are considered inappropriate, off-topic, abusive, or being used to promote and solicit for third-party sites, initiatives, or products. We ask that you please respect the following guidelines for our page:

- Please refrain from mentioning Merck products or products from other companies. We reserve the right to remove any comments that reference a product.
- Comments or reviews that are factually inaccurate or misleading, are spam, inappropriate, violate another's copyright or intellectual property, use profanity, or are defamatory will be deleted.
- There may be other circumstances that will require us to remove a comment. Merck reserves the right to delete any posting at its sole discretion.

This page is intended to provide a forum for open discussion and the content provided by those other than Merck does not represent the opinions or positions of Merck.

The content available on this page is for informational purposes only. It is not intended to be a substitute for professional medical advice, diagnosis, or treatment. Merck recommends that you consult your health care provider regarding personal health matters.
